Contemplative Practices for Spiritual Well-being: Saturday, April 1, 9am - 3pm in McCracken Hall. In this one-day retreat, Rev. Becky McDaniel will introduce contemplative practices that spiritual practitioners have employed for centuries to deepen their connection with God, including various methods of meditation, gentle yoga practices, Centering Prayer, and lectio divina. Becky has taught yoga and meditation for 14 years and was recently ordained a priest in the Episcopal Church. She weaves together the wisdom of religious traditions to create an open, compassionate, and safe space for seekers and religiously-affiliated believers alike. Please email Becky at curate@trinitystaunton.org to register. There is no charge for this retreat, and a light lunch will be provided.

Memorials for Easter Flowers: Before Easter, the Altar Guild collects Flower Memorials Gifts to purchase the flower decorations for the Easter services and to fund raise for the altar guild ministry. There is no set monetary fee. If you would like to make a donation, please use envelopes at the back of the church or submit your memorial via our online form. Go to our website, www.trinitystaunton.org, then hover over the menu heading of "Members" and choose "Easter Flower Memorials" from the drop down menu. Please return your gift to the Trinity office no later than Monday, April 3.
