Happening TODAY

Trinity's International Mission for Education (TIME) is our response to the challenge of ending poverty by providing educational opportunity, which allows access to information, to skill development, to job possibilities, to informed choices, to possibilities for improvement individually and collectively. If you would like to support TIME today, please write TIME on the memo line of your check or use the envelope placed at the end of your pew.

"Threads of History: Conversations with a Community" visually records the recollections of students and teachers from Booker T. Washington High School and past and present residents of the West Johnson Street neighborhood during the time of segregation and what happened after integration in 1966. The stories of this black community were recorded and filmed by the students from Mary Baldwin University. The award-winning documentary will be shown by Trinity today at 1 pm in the Foster Room. There will be refreshments and a discussion. So please come and bring your friends. If you have any questions, please contact Ginger Warrick at gingerwarricko@gmail.com or at 540-886-1195.
